

Subject matter: flyDetect® and IT security

To whom it may concern,

We understand the absolute necessity to keep all data confidential and preserve IT security.

Our award-winning flying insect surveillance system, the flyDetect®, uses AES-256 end to end encryption, as it offers improved data consumption over TLS/SSL ('encrypted https protocol via port 443') and strong overall performance without compromising system security.

Frédéric Hurstel
Business Director
Europe, Middle East & Africa

14 / 12 / 2020